

1. What are the three things that every complete sentence must have? HINT: Not punctuation or capitalization
2. Definitions:
  - a. Sentence fragment =
  - b. Run-on =
3. The four ways to fix a run-on are:
  - 1.
  - 2.
  - 3.
  - 4.
4. What are the seven conjunctions?
5. List 5 conjunctive adverbs (longer interrupters):
6. Fix the following sentence fragments to make them complete sentences:
  - a. Because you didn't use sunscreen.
  - b. Although eating a dozen cookies for lunch is tempting.
  - c. Everybody in the audience.
  - d. After you eat dinner.
  - e. Wears glasses, has brown hair, and likes to play hockey.
7. Fix each of the following run-ons using one of the four methods we have practiced. Use each of the methods we went over at least once.
  - a. Television used to be the most popular form of entertainment now it is the internet.
  - b. Robert and James are going to the Yankees game James isn't really a Yankees fan.
  - c. I want to take a trip to Alaska August will be the best time to go there.
  - d. Let's go to the movies tomorrow night we can see the new Marvel movie.